General Instructions for Application to NUS Non-Graduating Programme

Welcome! In this section, you will find useful information on how to go about organising your application.

Non-graduating students can only choose modules from the list of modules offered to NG students and check the NUS Bulletin for the module course descriptions. Please be reminded that not all modules shown in the NUS Bulletin are offered every year or open to non-graduating students.

For a full listing of research interests of all academic and research staff members at NUS, you can do a search through our Staff Research Directory System.

Important notes:
(a) Please indicate NOT more than 10 modules per semester.
(b) Please check on the MODULUS RESTRICTED LIST for each Faculty/Department before choosing your modules.
(c) Modules allocated are subject to fulfillment of the prescribed pre-requisites, availability and timetabling factors.
(d) Please note that, where there is a close time-table schedule provided for the modules in the drop down list, you should make use of that information to choose classes that have no timetable clashes. For modules with more than one (1) class, you should choose the class that best fits your overall schedule.
(e) Each of the modules in the drop-down list below has information on the quota available, except for Law modules, which are denoted with (*).
All modules in the list are available for selection regardless of the quota number.
*Students joining the Law Faculty will take part in a separate subject registration exercise. (to be advised at a later date), but should continue to choose Law modules in this system as part of the admission application process.

Modules from the following Faculty/Department/Centre cannot be done on an audit basis:
- School of Business
- School of Computing
- Faculty of Law
- Department of Industrial and System Engineering
- Centre for English Language Communication
- Centre for Language Studies
- Division of Industrial Design
- UMRCS modules from Faculty of Science (subject to approval from the respective department offering the module)
- Theatre Studies (TS) modules from Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (namely T510101, T510203, T510303, T510401, T510503)
- English Language (EL) modules from Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (namely EL3254)
- Geography (GE) modules from Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (namely GEK0201, SSA2204, SSA2215)

If you are applying to be a student from Semester 2 (Special Term of current academic year) to Semester 1 of the new academic year, please note that module approval for Semester 1 may be subject to changes. Please ensure that you check the availability of these Semester 1 modules with the respective host departments between June and July, before the commencement of the new academic year.

NOTE: All non-graduating international students doing coursework are required to take up at least 12 modular credits (MC) (approx. 3 modules) in order to qualify as a full-time student and be issued with a student pass.

| Coursework         | - Read the important notes carefully.
                    - Select from “TABLE 1” drop-down menu, the period of study (Note: Semester 1 commences in August and Semester 2 commences in January. Refer here for Academic Calendar). |
You are required to select the faculty first before selecting the modules offered under that faculty.

Before you proceed to apply for modules, please:

- refer to the list of available modules and check the NUS Bulletin for the modules’ course descriptions;
- read and understand the general criteria/restrictions for each module (if any);
- check the class and examination schedules (if available) for the modules you wish to apply to ensure that there are no timetable clashes. (Note: Students will not be allowed to take any two modules that have clashes in examination and/or class schedules as no alternative arrangements will be made to accommodate such clashes);
- choose at least 3 additional modules as reserves in addition to the minimum number if 3 modules you are required to take in NUS.

In total, you are allowed to select a minimum of 6 modules and up to 10 modules per semester. Please note that module enrolment, based on your selection, is not guaranteed as it is subject to fulfillment of pre-requisites, availability and timetabling factors.

If you are required by your home university to take the module(s) to satisfy transfer of credits back to your home university for graduation purposes, please tick on the “Compulsory” box against the module(s).
